CRIMINAL ACTION NO. C-09-438

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

(1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear for court as required; and

(2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

The evidence against the defendant is substantial. The firearm involved in this case was found at the defendant's home and he admitted it belonged to him. Substantial amounts of cocaine and marihuana were also found and the defendant admitted that he was a user of drugs. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted. The defendant has been on probation in the past, and could not comply with conditions of release. The probation was revoked. Because of his drug use and his inability to comply with probation, defendant is a poor bond risk.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 2nd day of July, 2009.

B. JANICE ELLINGTON
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
